Petersbourg, May 29, N. S.

THE laſt Letters this Court have received from Felt Marſhal Munich are dated the 4th of May, and adviſe, that he was then 180 Verſt (which is about 130 Engliſh Miles) from Precop, where he expected to arrive with his Army the 14th of the ſame Month, and was in hopes to make himſelf Maſter of that important Paſs in Six or Eight Days, and then to penetrate into the Crimea. It is ſaid Count Munich raiſed a great many Redouts at ſeveral Places in the Deſert as he paſſed, in which he has left ſmall Garriſons, to ſecure a Communication between him and Ruſſia, that every thing his Troops may want may be ſent him from Samara, without running the Risk of being taken by the ſtraggling Tartars in the Deſert. Laſt Thurſday Evening Young Count Munich, one of the Gentlemen of her Majeſty's Bedchamber, ſet out for Warſaw, in order to carry to the King of Poland the Czarina's Order of St. Andrew. The Princeſs of Radzeville, and her Son, are gone from hence for Warſaw; the Czarina was graciouſly pleaſed to give the Princeſs, before ſhe left this Place, her Picture ſet with Diamonds; Ten Thouſand Rubbles in ready Money, and three fine Sable Furs; in Conſideration of the great Services her Family have done King Auguſtus, in the late Troubles in Poland.

Stockholm, June 8. The King of Sweden, and Senate, have reſolved to acknowledge King Auguſtus of Poland, whoſe Miniſter M. Utterodt, is gone this Afternoon to Carlberg, to pay his Court to their Swediſh Majeſties on this Occaſion. Count Ferſen was buried the 30th paſt in the Evening, with great Pomp and State; when the Ceremony was over at Church, they fired Ninety Six Guns. He has left a vaſt Eſtate behind him, and three Children. It is ſaid that Preſident Stromfeld in the Chamber of Finances, will ſucceed Count Ferſen as Preſident of the Parliament.

Warſaw, June 13, N. S. The Primate is returned hither from his Seat at Lowitz, in order to be preſent at the Conferences with the Ruſſian Miniſter, which are fixed for 15 Days before the General Diet begins. The Palatin of Podolia Count Hamiecki, died lately; he was a firm Adherent to King Auguſtus, very active in promoting his Intereſt, and was alſo much beloved among the Nobility. As that Palatinate is on the Frontier of Turkey, it is of Conſequence to have a Perſon in whom the Court can confide, to fill that Office. Orders are already given for reducing 10 Men out of each Troop of the Saxon Regiments of Horſe.

Hambourg, June 23, N. S. The King of Denmark continues much in the ſame Way, troubled ſtill with periodical Returns of his Diſtemper, tho' he is upon the mending Hand. Many Affairs require his Conſideration, and Papers of ſeveral Kinds lie ready for his ſigning, but his Majeſty is not yet able to attend to any Buſineſs; and there is ſo little Likelihood of his appearing ſoon in publick, that ſeveral of thoſe who came hither to make their Court, are gone back, to wait his Recovery, to the Places of their Abode. His Majeſty probably intends to ſpend the Summer at Altena, ſince to remedy the Inconveniences of his Lodging, they are adding to it a new Building of Timber, which is to contain a large Room for Audiences. As the Treaty between the King of Denmark and the Town of Hambourg wants nothing to compleat it but the formal Exchange of the Ratifications, which is only delayed by reaſon of his Daniſh Majeſty's Illneſs, the Court has thought fit, in the mean time, to take away the Guards poſted upon the Avenues in Holſtein; ſo that the Trade of this City with the Daniſh Dominions is no longer obſtructed.

Hanover, June 26, N. S. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint M. Albydel, Councellor of War, to be Councellor of the Chamber of the Finances. On Sunday laſt M. Hammerſtein, who came hither on the Part of her moſt ſerene Highneſs the Firſt Dutcheſs Dowager of Wolfenbuttel, Conſort of the late Duke Auguſtus William, to compliment the King on his ſafe Arrival in his German Dominions, had his Audience of Leave of his Majeſty, and ſet out in the Evening on his Return for Brunſwick. The ſame Day M. Harlingue was introduced to the King, and complimented his Majeſty on the Part of his moſt ſerene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, on his Majeſty's Arrival. Yeſterday M. Alt, Secretary from the King of Sweden as Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, was introduduced to the King at Herrenhauſen by the Marqueſs de la Foreſt, Grand Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſhold. The Baron d'Aſſebourg had likewiſe Yeſterday an Audience of the King, in which he complimented his Majeſty upon his Arrival here, on the Part of his Maſter the Elector of Cologne; as did M. de Niſchurtz, on the Part of the Prince of Naſſau Dillenbourg; and the Baron de Riedeſel, on that of the Landgrave of Heſſe Darmſtadt.
